

Federal Regulatory Trends That Will Drive Change in 2018

Webinar T5014

Thursday, February 8, 2018
12:30 p.m. – 1:30 p.m. (CST)

Overview

This webinar will discuss recent federal audits that will impact health care providers operations. Faculty will review areas of focus for compliance programs and the top considerations for health care providers to address in 2018. This webinar will focus upon recent federal cases and the Office of Inspector General Work Plan updates, as well as the federal regulations that will drive change in the health care industry in 2018.

Target Audience

Hospital Leaders, Physicians, Compliance Officers, In-house Counsel and others interested in federal auditing updates

Objectives

At the conclusion of this session, participants will be able to:

1. Identify the federal audits that will impact operations of health care providers
2. Discuss focus areas of compliance programs health care providers should address for 2018
3. Examine some of the federal regulations what will drive change in the health care industry

Faculty

Michele Madison, partner with Morris, Manning & Martin, LLP, provides general legal advice to health systems in various regulatory and business matters. She is highly experienced in managing legal issues arising in hospitals, physicians offices or integrated health systems including employment, investigations, risk management assessment and corporation management, and provides legal education for health systems' medical staff, management teams and employees in these areas.

Certificates of Attendance

Certificates of Attendance will be issued to all registrants. These certificates should be placed on file at your hospital as evidence of attendance. Certificates of Attendance will not be awarded for recorded sessions.

Registration

$175 for AHA Member Hospitals
