

Operationalizing Compliance with the New Nondiscrimination Requirements Under Section 1557 of the Affordable Care Act

Webinar T4071

Tuesday, September 26, 2017
12:30 p.m. – 1:30 p.m. (CDT)

Overview

Toby Morgan and Drew Stevens will summarize the legal landscape under Section 1557 and its regulation, review recent legal developments and litigation, and detail practical steps that health care providers should take to minimize risk and achieve compliance.

Target Audience

Nurses, Physician Assistants, Physicians, Hospital and Health System Executives, HR Directors, Chief Diversity Officers, In-house Counsel, Compliance and Litigation Counsel.

Objectives

At the completion of this program, the participants will be able to:

- Discuss the legal prohibitions, requirements and risks under the Affordable Care Act's nondiscrimination provisions
- List concrete steps and best practices for operationalizing compliance with Section 1557's regulation and minimizing risk associated with Section 1557

Faculty

Toby Morgan, JD is the director of compliance for Emory Healthcare, Inc. (EHC). Toby is responsible for developing and implementing EHC's nondiscrimination compliance programs, coordinating nondiscrimination policies across the system relating to compliance and the promotion of opportunities for patients with disabilities and for anti-discrimination in the provision of health care services. She is also responsible for overseeing the investigation of patient complaints and grievances, education of staff and physicians and the implementation of all aspects of patient nondiscrimination on an operational level.

Drew Stevens is a health care litigation associate at Arnall Golden Gregory LLP (AGG). At AGG, Drew is a member of the Hospital and Health Systems Industry Team, as well as the Long-Term Care Industry Team. In his health care practice, Drew regularly assists in the defense of health care providers in False Claims Act investigations and litigation brought by the Department of Justice.
